

DBI Contracting, Inc. – Superintendent

We are looking for a Superintendent to join our team. We are a successful commercial, general construction company in the Bay area and northern California. Our Superintendents are responsible for the successful completion of projects, including:

- Supervising project
- Managing projects from beginning through completion
- Attending construction meetings
- Ability to read plans
- Light to medium general labor, some finish construction
- Take direction and give direction
- Ensuring compliance with safety requirements and making sure company procedures are followed
- Provide own transportation
- Light travel

Some commercial construction experience preferred. Must have a valid CA driver's license.

Salary is dependent upon experience.

DBI Contracting Inc. is continuing to grow and expand. We look for candidates who have a passion for their work, want to grow with the company, and are committed to excellence.

Job Type: Full-time

Required education:

- High School Diploma or GED

Required experience:

- Superintended experience preferred

Required license or certification:

- Driver's License

Some tools and hand tools a plus.